The technology innovation for Multi-Academy Trusts

Who are we?

MyNewTerm has been developed out of moral purpose by teachers in collaboration with academics at the University of Bedfordshire and The Open University. We are on a mission to support schools and growing multi-academy trusts to improve efficiency, ensure compliance and increase candidate attraction through our innovative and multi-award-winning solution.

Wayne Cartmel, Founder

Why we do what we do?

As teachers, we experienced first hand the frustrations and red tape having to spend hours completing repetitive application forms. Furthermore, with schools facing increased budget pressures, rather than simply accept the inefficient system, we set out to inspire change using innovative technology. With a proven model of success, tens of thousands of candidates have now applied direct to schools and MATs using MyNewTerm.
