myresources

Family Hub

Your family situation can change expectedly or unexpectedly. You can find useful information to help you navigate the changes from work to health and finances.

Cars, travel and insurance

Buying a new or second-hand car? Use content provided to get you started and help you make the right choice for you.

Homes and mortgages

Buying a property can be stressful whether you're a first-time buyer or not. It is the largest loan you'll most likely take and biggest investment you'll probably make in your lifetime. So it's good to be prepared and know what to expect. The Money Advice Service has lots of tools to help.

Gells of Raunds

Nene Education Trust employees can benefit from a 10% discount on work done and MOTs at £40 at this garage. Staff just need to take along their lanyards to show they work for the trust when they pay!
