

Learning Support/Teaching Assistant

Grade 3 (pay range 4-6)

Job Description

Overview

Posts at this level may be required in any school phase.

The teacher plans lessons and directs learning. Teaching Assistants provide support to the teacher and through this to pupils and to the teaching of the curriculum. Teaching Assistants work under the direction of the teacher, whether with the whole class, a small group, or an individual pupil.

All duties will be carried out within recognised procedures or guidelines and the teacher will be available for support and guidance.

The post holder will be expected to have some expertise/specialism.

There will be some need to interpret information or situations and to solve varied problems. Problems that are more complex will be referred to the line manager.

No requirement to supervise others, but may demonstrate tasks to new colleagues or give advice and guidance to others.

Each school in the Trust is organised differently, and the range of duties carried out at this level will be different in each school. Some jobs may carry out a diverse range of duties whilst others may be engaged on a narrower range of tasks.

Whilst line management arrangements will vary from school to school, it is likely that the post holder will report to one of the following: Head Teacher, Deputy, Head of Year, Phase, or SENDCO.

Duties

- Undertake a range of more specialised tasks to support learning e.g. supporting English and Maths work, supporting phonics, listening to reading etc.
- Work with pupils, either one-to-one or in small groups, some of whom may have Special Educational Needs
- Model and support children to follow behaviour rules and use behaviour management systems as required
- As appropriate, look after sick/upset pupils and attend to physical needs
- Undertake first aid
- Communicate with children, modelling and supporting play to move learning on

Support for the teacher

- Provide support for the teacher during lessons, e.g. through directed work on the English and Maths curriculum and other curriculum areas, or supervising small groups of pupils whilst the teacher is carrying out assessments
- Responsible for groups of children including learning and behaviour
- Maintain records of pupil needs and progress
- Assist teaching staff to ensure that the aims and objectives of the school are achieved
- Make accurate and informative observations linked to ability
- Undertake tasks to support the curriculum and assist with events organised as part of the curriculum
- Support implementation of Government initiatives under the direction of the teacher

Support for school

- Attend and contribute to appropriate review meetings, if required by the Head Teacher
- Undertake lunch duty to provide children with support whilst eating and during playtime
- Be prepared to undergo training as and when required, including off site

The duties and responsibilities of any post may change from time to time, and post holders may be expected to carry out other work not explicitly mentioned above which is considered to be appropriate within the existing level of responsibility vested in the post.
