ENJOY RESPECT ACHIEVE

Welcome to Bohunt Worthing

I would like to thank you for your interest in joining the teaching and learning community of our school. It is my privilege to be the Headteacher of this school at the heart of the community in Worthing and I am thrilled to be leading an institution that is characterised by engaged and dedicated young people with enormous potential. At Bohunt Worthing we value character and experience as highly as academic attainment and seek professionals who are keen to develop the whole child. Our culture of high expectations extends beyond the classroom and incorporates the development of character traits such as resilience, curiosity and kindness, demonstrated within our 'Polite' language for learning.

A love of learning is something we value highly as a staff; we encourage thought and explicitly teach the skills of listening and engagement in lessons across the curriculum creating an atmosphere of highly motivated and mutually respectful learning.

When our students leave us they will have achieved excellent academic progress and developed the skills they need to help them realise their potential through the exceptional guidance of expert practitioners.

Highest expectations

A culture of high expectations requires a safety net of support and we have an effective pastoral system to provide exactly that. All of our students are ably supported by their form tutor and our Achievement Coordinators: highly skilled and dedicated staff members who hold responsibility for students' welfare and progress. This system is built on our core principle of getting to know each child as an individual so that we can best support them and help them to achieve their goals.

We are an iPad 1-2-1 school and, although these devices do not replace the traditional exercise books and pens, across all curriculum areas our students benefit from this technology whether through immediate access to a wealth of resources, instantaneous, low-stakes assessment of progress or the redefinition of learning, young people experience a personalised learning journey supported by technology.

'Our child has had unparalleled support, respect and understanding. They have outstanding educational opportunities and exceptional teachers'
