Job Start Date: Monday 28th April or sooner

Closing Date: 24th January 2025

Shortlisting: Monday 27th January 2025

Interview: Friday 31st January 2025

We are looking for an enthusiastic and committed SEN Class Teacher to join us from Easter 2025. You will be responsible for delivering a broad and balanced curriculum, facilitating a positive learning environment, and inspiring our students to achieve their full potential.

You're someone who is:

- * Passionate about special needs education and has a proven track record of success.
- * Able to motivate and inspire pupils of all abilities.
- * Dedicated to meeting the individual needs of all students.
- * A strong communicator with excellent interpersonal skills.
- * A team player who is also able to work independently.

You're someone who has:

- * Qualified Teacher Status (QTS).
- * Experience working with students with severe and complex learning difficulties.
- * A secure knowledge of the SEND curriculum and assessment requirements. If so, we want you to join our team at St Georges Primary Academy Newtown!

About Us: St. George's C of E Primary Academy Newtown, part of the Birmingham Diocesan Multi-Academy Trust, is a two-form entry mixed primary school. Located in the heart of Newtown, we are dedicated to providing our students with lifelong opportunities and skills. We are proud to have exceeded the national benchmarks in reading, spelling, punctuation, grammar, and mathematics in the Key Stage 2 statutory tests.

We are pleased to announce that St George's C of E Primary Academy received a 'Good' grade in all areas during our recent Ofsted inspection on November 19th and 20th, 2024.

The inspection report highlighted our effective support for pupils with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND), stating:

“Pupils with special educational needs and/or disabilities (SEND) are skilfully and quickly identified by the school, helping them become more successful in their learning. Well-designed interventions provide extra support for these pupils, helping them to catch up with their peers. Teachers adapt learning tasks so pupils with SEND can access the same learning as other pupils.”

At St George's, we pride ourselves on our strong team ethos and supportive environment. Our staff provide the best education and care for our pupils, who are polite, eager to learn, and thrive in our nurturing atmosphere.

The Role:

Are you an outstanding teacher with special needs experience?

Are you passionate about making a difference in the lives of children and young people with severe and complex learning difficulties?

We are seeking a dedicated and enthusiastic Primary School SEND Class Teacher to lead our Send provision. The ideal candidate will have substantial experience in supporting SEND pupils in the classroom, specifically by tailoring the learning environment and developing lesson plans to teach a small group of pupils with moderate learning difficulties. A minimum of two years' experience in a similar role is preferred.

- Ability to work collaboratively as part of a team.

If so, St George's C of E Academy in Newtown is looking for you!

What We Offer:

- A welcoming and inclusive school community.
- Polite and motivated pupils who are keen to learn.
- A supportive team of colleagues who share a strong team ethos.
- Opportunities for professional development and growth.

- A caring ethos where everyone is welcomed, valued, supported and pupil and staff well-being are given high priority.
- A happy, vibrant learning and working environment where the well-being of pupils, staff and the school community are given high priority.
- Confident, well-behaved, polite and articulate pupils who are eager to learn.
- A highly effective, hardworking and supportive staff team.
- A comprehensive employee package including medical assistance and financial advice.
- Supportive and positive Governors and parents.
- Excellent opportunities for personal and professional development within the school and across the Birmingham Diocesan Multi-Academy Trust.

If you have answered yes to the above questions, we can offer you a fresh challenge, an ambitious working environment, excellent CPD opportunities, a supportive leadership team and happy students.
