Thomas Becket Catholic School is a successful, comprehensive 11-18 secondary school in Northampton. This role is pivotal in ensuring that all administrative and safeguarding duties are carried out efficiently and with the upmost confidentiality. To work closely with parents and carers to help overcome pupils’ barriers to learning both internal and external to school.

- Where the culture and ethos of the school is not just a fancy poster in reception, but something that we live and breathe every day?
- That values staff input, feedback and collaboration as the school moves on our mission to excellence.
- That provides staff CPD to develop their practice and skills both internally but also recognised national qualifications?
- That prioritises a ‘Knowledge Rich’ curricular approach, valuing the importance of a curriculum accessible to all?

If your answer to the above questions is a yes, you could be just who we are looking for!
