

Main responsibility

Teaching well-prepared, engaging lessons throughout the school, and acting as tutor to a group of students. Playing a full role in the school community and communicating with appropriately with others in the community.

Teaching and Learning

- Teach at times and in places designated by the school timetable.
- Teach students using a range of methods and active learning approaches in line with the school's Teaching and Learning Handbook in order to ensure that lessons are stimulating, have pace and challenge, take account of recognised good practice and include appropriate differentiation.
- Be responsible for the learning and progress of each student taught and be accountable to the Subject Leader for the progress that all students make.
- Set homework for each class taught at the times detailed in the published homework timetable for each Year Group.
- Assess the standards of students' achievements through classwork, verbal contributions and the regular setting of homework: where appropriate record these assessments on the school database.
- Write reports on students and contribute to references in line with the school's Assessment policy.

Communication

- Liaise with the appropriate person (Subject Leader, Form Teacher, Year Leader, SENCO etc.) when a student's academic achievement or behaviour becomes a cause for concern. In the latter case following the agreed procedures given in the school's Behaviour Policy.
- Respond to requests for information (for example, updates on behaviour or academic progress) about particular students, as necessary.
- Work with Associate Teachers, Learning Support Assistants and Technicians as necessary to ensure that all students have the best possible opportunity to learn.
- Attend Progress Evenings and other meetings set out in the directed time calendar.
- Maintain an accurate register of students in lessons and form tutor times.
- Pass on appropriate information to students from the Student Bulletin and other sources.

Tutoring

- Monitor the overall academic progress of each student in the tutor group.
- Ensure that students are aware of and follow the school's Behaviour Policy, Code of Conduct and Rights for Learning and that students are aware of the behaviour expectations, rewards and sanctions.
- Monitor, regularly, that uniform requirements and standards of students' personal appearance are adhered to, taking appropriate action when necessary.
- Support the work of the attendance officer by alerting students/parents to unexplained absences and, when appropriate, discussing strategies to improve a student's attendance with parents.
- Check, regularly, the use of student planners and promote strategies for good personal organisation and homework completion. Receive and initial student absence letters, indicating that the absence should be authorised and then passing these on to reception via the register.
- Be the first point of contact for parents and teachers for matters relating to members of the tutor group.
- Contribute to conducting individual student interviews on review days.
- Support tutor group representatives on The School Council and ensuring that they have structured time to feedback from School Council meetings and canvass opinion from the student body.
- Attend assemblies as requested (unless a written request has been made to and approved by the Headteacher), escorting and managing the orderly behaviour of students on their way to and during assembly.
- Support the school House System by managing the collection of House points and encouraging students' participation in House activities. Promote the value of participation in other extra-curricular activities.
