- Ensure that the aims of history schemes of work and the knowledge, skills and attitude to be imparted to students through the department, are in keeping with the general aims of the Academy.
- Work with colleagues on the development and delivery of courses, teaching materials, teaching programmes, methods of teaching, assessment and pastoral arrangements appropriate to the delivery of history within the context of the National Curriculum and prescribed examination courses. (GCSE & A Level)
- Ensure that the classroom is a safe and stimulating environment for students to learn with an appropriate range of resources and display.
- Plan and prepare courses and lessons.
- Set and mark the work of students in line with department policies.
- Assess, record and report on student progress, and on the personal and social needs of students.
- Promote the progress and well-being of individuals and classes
- Ensure that students with special needs, gifted or less able, are catered for appropriately. You will liaise with the Academy SENCO and LSAs on students with learning difficulties.
- Play an active part in ensuring that all students are working to their potential and achieving improved standards.

- Keep abreast of curriculum developments affecting the department and be prepared to discuss matters affecting the curriculum as a whole.
- Provide guidance on educational and social matters.
- Participate in all arrangements for public examinations.
- Review from time to time methods of teaching and programmes of work.
- Communicate and consult with parents of students.
- Communicate with appropriate persons or bodies outside the Academy.
- Participate in meetings arranged for any of the purposes above.
- Provide or contribute to oral and written assessments, reports and references for students.
- Participate in statutory arrangements for appraisal.
- Participate in arrangements for training and professional development.
- Participate in meetings at the Academy which relate to the curriculum for the Academy or the administration or organisation of the Academy, including pastoral arrangements.
- Provide cover as required, teaching any students whose teacher is not available to teach them.
- Ensure that Health and Safety issues are properly understood and procedures followed.
- Ensure that all safeguarding policies and procedures are adhered to.

Staff

The Teacher of History will be required to:

- Co-operate and collaborate with colleagues and the Head of Department on all professional matters.
- Support the induction of ECTs as required and support the training of student teachers when they have been accepted into the department and support colleagues new to the Academy.
- Support supply teachers and teachers doing cover.

Communication and meetings

1. Attend and contribute to appropriate meetings for the team
2. Support effective communication by forwarding topics / issues for consideration at meetings and any relevant documentation or memos to the Head of Department.

Finance

1. Observe budgetary control measures, contribute to monitoring expenditure as required, and make effective use of available resources.
2. Contribute to the maintenance of effective resources for learning - textbooks, student materials, equipment and rooms.

Academy specialisms

1. Demonstrate a commitment to the specialisms of the Academy.
2. Contribute to the History Specialism.

Note: The duties required of all teachers under Pay and Conditions of Service Legislation are a necessary part of this description

General

- Comply and assist with the development of policies and procedures relating to health, safety, data protection and confidentiality, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person.
- To adhere to the Trust/academy Health and Safety Policy including risk assessment and safety systems.
- Participate in training opportunities and professional development as required.
- Support the Trust's academies at events as and when required.
- Develop constructive relationships and communicate with other agencies/professionals.
- Contribute ideas on new and innovative business opportunities that could improve the effective functioning of the Trust.

Trust

All Multi Academy Trust staff are expected to:

- Undertake other such reasonable duties as may be required from time to time.
- Work towards and support the Sponsors' and CEO's vision and the objectives of Development Plans.
- Support and contribute to the MAT's responsibility for safeguarding students.
- Work within the MAT's Health and Safety policy to ensure a safe working environment for staff, students and visitors.
- Work within the MAT's Diversity Policy to promote equality of opportunity for all students and staff, both current and prospective.
- Maintain high professional standards of attendance, punctuality, appearance, conduct and positive courteous relations with students, parents, colleagues, Members, Trustees and members of Local Governing Boards at all times.
- Actively engage in the MAT's performance management process and take responsibility for their own professional development.
- Adhere to MAT policies and procedures as set out in the staff handbook and other guidance documentation which is available to all staff via the trust networks.

This job description should be seen as enabling rather than restrictive and may be subject to regular review to reflect the changing priorities and objectives of the annual MAT Development Plan.

All staff of the MAT are expected to comply with any reasonable request from a leader to undertake work of a similar level and/or type that it is not specified in this job description.
