St Germans Academy is a small, rural school which works alongside Wimbotsham Academy and Magdalen Academy under the leadership of joint heads of school. We have a well-established proactive staff team that are committed to the education of the whole child.

At St Germans Academy, you will find a warm and friendly atmosphere, with a purposeful learning environment. We aim to provide happy and supportive surroundings for the children in our care and have in place a wide range of learning experiences to ensure the full growth and development of the child – physically, intellectually, socially and morally.

We are looking for an enthusiastic, creative and dynamic teaching assistant to work in our small village school. Your role will be to support pupils' learning and play a key role in their development; working closely with the class teacher to implement interventions and targeted group work. Your role will also include lunchtime duties to support playtimes; setting up games with children and promoting healthy eating.

You will be someone who:

- Is passionate about working with children.
- Has experience of working with KS2.
- Has experience of working with children with SEND.
- Is creative and can think on their feet.
- Has excellent numeracy/ literacy skills.
- Works well as part of a team.
- Has a clear understanding of safeguarding and keeping children safe in education.

We can offer you:

- Dedicated and supportive colleagues.
- Opportunities for professional development.
- A small class of well-behaved, creative and enthusiastic learners.

If so we would love to hear from you.

For an informal discussion about the post please email office@stg.unity-ed.uk or phone on 01553 617246. Visits to the school encouraged.
